INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, PAIA gives effect to section 32 of the Constitution, which provides that everyone has the right to access information held by the State, as well as information held by another person (or private body) when such privately held information is required to exercise a right or to protect a right.

PAIA, provides that a person requesting information must be given access to any record of a private body, if that record is required for the exercise or the protection of a right. However, such request has to comply with the procedural requirements laid down by the Act.

This manual is compiled in accordance with Section 51 of PAIA and contains the following provisions:

- the FSP's postal address, street address, phone and fax number and e-mail address.
- a short description of the guidance document on the application of the Promotion of Information Act and the process to be followed in order to obtain a copy of this guide (compiled by the Human Rights Commission in terms of section 10 of the Act).
- the process to be followed in order to access information held by the FSP. See Annexure C.
- a description of the typology of records held by the FSP (i.e. various information subjects held on each category type). See Annexure A.
- a description of records which are freely available without having to submit a formal request to access information in terms of the Act. See Annexure B.
- a description of the FSP's information which are available in accordance with any other legislation.

A request for access to information must be made in the prescribed form to the information officer indicated above. See Annexure C for the prescribed form.

All required text fields on the annexed "Request for Information Form" must be completed in full and in a legible form. The form (as well as any additional pages attached thereto) must be signed by the person submitting the form.

Once the "Request for Information Form" has been submitted, the information officer will notify the person who submitted the request of the prescribed fee (if any) payable before further processing the request.

A fee of R50 will be charged for access to any records. If the request is granted, the person who submitted the request will be accordingly notified and a further fee will be payable. The additional fee would be for the reproduction, preparation and time reasonably required to search for and prepare the disclosure. The person who submitted the request may lodge an application to court against the tender or payment of the fee.

An individual seeking access to a record containing their own personal information will not be charged a request fee.

A person submitting the request must:

- indicate the identity of the person seeking access to the information
- provide sufficient particulars to enable the information officer to identify the information requested
- specify the format in which the information is required
- indicate the contact details of the person requiring the information
- indicate the right to be exercised and/or to be protected, and specify the reasons why the information required will enable the person to protect and/or exercise the right

BA

- where the person requesting the information wishes to be informed of the decision of the request in a particular manner, state the manner and particulars to be so informed
- if the request for information is made on behalf of another person, submit proof that the person submitting the request, has obtained the necessary authorisation to do so
